ABSTRACT

Anti-Japanese national spirit Korea (Republic of Korea) are represented through economic progress to rival Japanese nationalism embodies the Japanese occupation of Korea due to past. Spirit of nationalism Korea raises interest the authors to assess the Samil Movement as the forerunner of the emergence of Korean nationalism. As for the stages of the study is a historical methods, namely heuristic, criticism, interpretation and historiography. In the meantime to answer the research problem formulation consists of three questions, namely 1) What factors into the background the Samil Movement?. 2) How the development of social and political life in Korea after the Samil movement?. 3) How the influence of the movement against the establishment Samil Korean exile government in 1919-1945?. Of the results obtained the following information: Samil movement emerged as a form of popular protest over the death of King Kojong and Japan oppression that has been done for the past nine years in power in Korean Peninsula. In addition, allied forces role in the victory of World War I to give effect to the demands of Korean independence. The impact of the Samil movement was the emergence of nationalism Korean.

Key Words : Samil Movement, Korean National Movement